2023 Annual Report

A Flagship Year

Dear Friend,

As we wrap up another year of impact at Family Promise of Tualatin Valley, I am filled with gratitude. The dream of owning our new building, Bridge to Home, has become a reality, marking a new chapter in our efforts to end family homelessness in our community. Witnessing families in Bridge to Home transition from the daily stress of houselessness to stability and hope has been nothing short of incredible. Our on-site presence allows us to share in the joy of housing approvals and offer support in moments of disappointment. Each household's unique journey toward rehousing is a testament to the tenacity of our guests and the compassionate advocacy of the FPTV team.

Through Bridge to Home, we've created a space where families can find healing and joy, combating the isolation often experienced in moments of housing instability. Enrichment programs, fueled by the dedication of our amazing volunteers, bring children and families together for crafts and story times, after-school homework help, and community events like bingo and movie nights. These programs, including financial literacy, also prepare guests for life beyond our shelter walls, with skill-building workshops and tools for independence and stability. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who has made our transition into our new building warm and supportive. Your contributions have been invaluable, and if you haven't yet visited, we invite you to join us at Bridge to Home to make 2024 a year of lasting impact for our community.

Warmly,

Rose Money

Founding Executive Director, Family Promise of Tualatin Valley

Bridge to Home

In 2023, thanks to much community support, FPTV bought our own building! Achieving this dream has allowed us to expand shelter services to up to 70 households, grow our enrichment programming, and build new partnerships with service providers. While in program, each household receives weekly food support, individualized case management, and housing navigation services aimed at addressing barriers and achieving long-term, stable housing.

“After I entered shelter, I was able to get back to work, make a budget, and plan ahead for rent payments. The weekly food delivery made it easy for me to focus on work and finding an apartment within my budget. The weekly case management sessions kept me accountable to my to-do list each week. FPTV made it easy for me to ask for help. Thank you!”

— Lena, FPTV Graduate

Bridge to Home was made possible by a Project Turnkey grant from the State of Oregon. We are grateful to the State, Oregon Community Foundation, and the City of Tigard for making this dream a reality!

“Owning our own building means endless new opportunities to develop and offer the warm, wrap-around programs that define FPTV.”

—Nancy Scott, Board President

Thanks to our new building and expanded shelter capacity, our impact has grown significantly to meet the heightened need in our community. As we grow, we continue to serve families and individuals with kindness, compassion, and personalized support.

Prevention & Diversion

Through our prevention and diversion programs, FPTV intervenes when families are at risk of losing their homes due to unforeseen circumstances like illness, accidents, or job loss.

By offering financial assistance to prevent eviction, we help to mitigate the long-term challenges associated with houselessness, all while helping to safeguard families' wellbeing and stability.

Work With Schools

FPTV works closely with local school districts to support families experiencing homelessness. By working directly with district staff, we minimize educational disruptions by keeping students in their home schools while in shelter. Our enrichment programs at Bridge to Home provide school supplies, back-to-school clothes, and tutoring for students.

Graduate Support Services

Once you're part of FPTV, you're always part of FPTV. As FPTV program graduates move forward, we help ensure a smooth transition. Starting weeks before move-out, we work with families to identify their needs, mobilize community donations, assist in moving, and provide ongoing case management support to help folks establish stability and community.

External Case Management

Through our external case management programs, we provided services to an additional:

293

Households

“We accompany families on their journeys to achieving a true fresh start. Whatever circumstances led to their loss of housing, FPTV offers a refuge from the streets and a diverse staff committed to seeing families leave our shelter confident, hopeful, and housed.”

— Ben, FPTV Case Manager

Volunteers

Volunteers have been the backbone of FPTV's programming and community since our inception. This year, our volunteers went above and beyond to make Bridge to Home "home" for our families. Among countless other acts of service, our volunteers:

- Built, organized, and donated to our Clothing Closet, filled with all sizes of clothes
- Provided weekly support for our on-site food pantry (which includes pet food!) and offered guests home-cooked meals 3-4x each week
- Donated supplies and built our spectacular playroom, home to "Cocoa Club," our weekly homework help group

Donors & Financials

It truly takes a village—and we're grateful to everyone in ours. FPTV's funding comes from contracts with the cities we work with, Washington County, and the State of Oregon. The support we receive from individual community members, faith communities, local businesses, and family foundations allows us to provide the wrap-around services that define FPTV.
